

A Villainous Steward.
WINNIPEG, MANITOBA, May 23.—A sensation was created here on a warrant being issued for the arrest of Simpson, Steward of the Small-pox Hospital, from which young Kittson, son of the St. Paul millionaire, who has not yet been found, escaped. The warrant charges Simpson with manslaughter, and was issued at the instance of the city editor of a daily paper, to whom the following statement was made by Joseph Brewster, formerly assistant in the hospital under Simpson: "The facts regarding Dr. Tulloch's case, as published Saturday, were perfectly correct. It was Simpson's custom to place patients in irons at night in order that he might not be disturbed in his sleep. Handcuffs were placed on their feet around their ankles, and their hands tied behind their backs. Henry Marcelle was kept in that position two days and nights. I took pity on him, and during Simpson's absence took off the irons. Marcelle got up and was walking the floor when Simpson came in. Simpson pulled him against a stretcher, causing him to groan and cry. He subsequently died. Simpson abused me for interfering. One night Simpson got orders from the doctors to sit up with Mrs. Vaughan, a patient. He resorted to an easy chair, having tied the patient to the bed with a sheet. He had what is known as a disinfectant lamp placed near the patient's bed. During the night the lamp, by some means, set fire to the bed, and when Simpson was aroused by smoke he rushed into my room for assistance. I ran for a pail of water and threw it on the fire, and Mrs. Vaughan got a part of the contents in the face. She was badly burned about the feet, and died in about two hours."

The indictment charges Simpson with manslaughter in connection with Mrs. Vaughan, who died in the hospital last October.

He Would Be Revenged.
LEADVILLE, COLO., May 23.—Jack McComb, ex-Democratic nominee for Mayor, who yesterday burned down the new Carroll House in a spirit of revenge for fancied grievances, was held for trial at the Criminal Court this morning.

STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

The Bears Have It All Their Own Way—The Union Pacific Down—Markets Generally Fairly Active.
New York, May 23.—Money 2 3/4 per cent.; closed at 2 3/4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 5 1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange: long strong at 48 1/2; short, 48 1/4. Produce exports for the week, $4,374,000.

Governments weak and 1/4 per cent. lower. Railroads irregular, without feature. State securities quiet and strong. Stock market again unsettled and feverish during the forenoon, though fluctuations were over a narrow range. The market continued to decline up till 2, when a raid seemed to be made, and prices were depressed 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. The latter on Oregon and Transcontinental and St. Paul, but in the last half hour there was a complete reversal of the situation, and the decline of the first half hour was more than recovered. In the last half hour Northwest advanced 1 1/2 per cent. for preferred to 134 1/2 per cent. in common to 12 1/2 per cent. Burlington 1 per cent., to 12 1/2 per cent. in Luskawanna, to 12 1/2 per cent. in Michigan Central, to 9 1/2 per cent. in Union Pacific, to 9 1/2 per cent. Central Pacific 1 per cent., to 7 1/2 per cent. Lake Shore 1 1/2 per cent., to 10 1/2 per cent. St. Paul 1/4 per cent., to 10 1/2 per cent. Louisville 1/4 per cent., to 4 1/2 per cent. Oregon Transcontinental 1 per cent., to 8 1/2 per cent. General stocks touched extraordinarily low prices to-day as compared with the last two and a half years. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy sold at 12 1/2, the lowest price at which it sold during two years—1881 and 1882—being 12 1/2 in November, 1881. Central Pacific sold to-day at 7 1/2, the lowest price in two years being 8 1/2 in 1882. Union Pacific sold to-day at 9 1/2, the lowest price at which it sold in 1881 and 1882 being 9 1/2 in November, 1881. New York Elevated was offered to-day successfully at 107, 105, 104 and 103, without any sales. The Evening Post says: "It is important that for the next two days the market has been left entirely without support from the bull side. The bears have had it all their own way, and it is thought have so far oversold the market that any considerable buying would cause a sharp advance. The Lehigh Navigation Company declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 1/2 per cent., the last semi-annual dividend being 2 per cent."
